TEACHER TRAINING WORKSHOP

In an on-going effort to enrich the educational practices, the teachers from GDG Baramulla participated in a three-day training session held at GD Goenka, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi. The workshop provided our teachers with the opportunity to learn from esteemed educators and explore innovative strategies to implement in their classrooms. The enthusiasm and renewed passion our teachers returned with are palpable, reflecting the value of such professional development experiences. GD Goenka's commitment to supporting teacher growth through these training sessions is showcased. The dedication to enhancing and refining educators' skills is essential in our pursuit of excellence, ensuring that the highest quality education is received by our students.

GRADUATION CERMONY- GRADES I-VII:

In our on-going pursuit to provide our students with the best educational experiences and to recognize their hard work and performance in their previous classes, GD Goenka Baramulla held a grand graduation ceremony for grades I to VII. The children, brimming with joy and pride, donned their graduation gowns and walked down the aisle to receive their certificates. Parents, teachers, and fellow students gathered to applaud the young graduates, creating a supportive and festive atmosphere. The graduation ceremony not only celebrated academic success but also reinforced the values of hard work and perseverance among students. These are the experiences and memories that will stay with our students, inspiring them as they continue their educational paths.
